10th CAVALRY FIRST TO DEFEAT VILLA

Crack Tenth Regiment Overtakes
Company of Bandits

KILL FORTY MEXICANS

Colored Troops Suffer
No Casualties. Outlaws Fleeing

A squadron of the Tenth Cavalry, Uncle Sam's crack Negro troupe, was the first to meet and defeat the Villa forces according to telegrams "from the front" the past three days. The country is ringing with praises of General Pershing's troopers. Major Evans, in his daily report, says Brown, with squadron of Tenth Cavalry, encountered a band of Villistas and was pursuing them through San Antonio. Natives traveling from Chihuahua, state that Brown's command, part dismounted and part mounted, surprised the Villistas at noon, with horses grazing, killing 20 or 40 bandits, capturing many horses.

Some reports say Villa was badly injured and escaped, others say he was not in the band that was overtaken. None of the colored troopers were hit by bullets, in the running fight, the bandits firing wildly.

At last report the Mexicans were fleeing in disorder from their colored pursuers.

The Tenth is not the only colored regiment in the show. The 24th and 25th are both in the wake, but because of the nature of the land have not kept up with the mounted troops. There were none the less brave, however, and most distinguished themselfs.

Colored Officers of U. S. Army
The colored officers in the United States' regular army are at present as follows: Line Officers: Major Charles Young, 10th Cavalry; First Lieutenant Benjamin O. Davis, 10th Cavalry; First Lieutenant John W. Clegg, 25th Cavalry. The regimental chaplains are: Captain George W. Prieole, 9th Cavalry; First Lieutenant W. W. Gladden, 24th Infantry; First Lieutenant O. J. W. Scott, 25th Infantry; First Lieutenant John A. Carter, 1st Cavalry. On the retired list are the following colored men: Major W. E. Anderson and Captain G. Stewart, both regt. chaplains; Major John R. Lynch, formerly paymaster. Major John Lynch is the only West Point graduate, Green and Davis having been promoted from the ranks.

At Poro College

We are pleased to announce the fine attendance of the members of the "Poro" Argus at their regular meetings held here every evening at "Poro" College. Although Mrs. A. M. Malone was absent the meeting was very successfully managed by Mrs. Johnnie Pointer-Marshall, vice-president, assisted by Mrs. Clara Smith-Edmon, and Miss Regine McMurray.

The College Crew will return within a few days, from a short tour through the north, with "Poro" College making pictures. These tours will be continued by the crew throughout the entire year.

To Visitors

The trip of those visiting the Central Missouri Conference, will not be complete unless they add "Poro" College, 5100 Pine St., to their list.

SPokane Man Explains Iowa Boy's Revolt

Says Discrimination by Whites is the Cause—Denial of Privileges Disheartening Negroes Loyalty Has Been Proven

To the Editor of the Spokesman-Review.—The refusal of the little colored boy in Des Moines to salute the flag has been charged to religious fanaticism and it is charity to allow it to go so far. But I rather suspect that that boy's parents are of the constantly increasing class of Negroes who are asking the question, "Why should colored Americans honor the American flag?"

To the white American that flag is the symbol of liberty and opportunity, such as is offered by no other national emblem. To the colored American it is the sign of prejudice, discrimination and closed opportunities more than is any other nation on the globe. In other countries, the colored nation against Negroes was never heard of until the American occupation. The same is true of Panama and the Latin republics; the advent of the American flag is the beginning of efforts to humiliate the Negroes.

That the white American boy may have been asked that in the great "land of the free and home of the brave" his colored men are refused this opportunity to earn a honest living, while the foreigner, who can not speak our language and is saturated with anarachism and other ideas antagonistic to the welfare of society, has every door thrown open to him where he can do work.

That colored men, who have served their country faithfully under that flag and received an honorable discharge are refused the most common work simply because they are colored, while Indians, Greeks, Australians and even Mexicans are readily employed.

Recently, in this city, the public library of this city announced that a number of young ladies would soon be needed in the library and that an examination would be held at a certain time. Among those who presented themselves for examination was a colored lady who had graduated from one of our high schools. Her family had been residents of this city for 25 years and taxpayers of all that time. But the girl was flatly refused the examination because she was colored. The librarian, in justification of her action, said that a member of the board expressed great surprise that a colored girl should present to ask such a private examination.

This the young colored people are being taught by their white neighbors that they must not expect any of the opportunities or privileges that the flag represents; that its "glorious" privileges are for white people of every nation, and that the colored people are not entitled to any of its protection, but not for black Americans who have not fled black in its defense from Boston Common to San Juan, and at this very moment are defending its honor on Mexican soil.

Negroes Elected Delegates To National Convention

When met at Exposition Springs, this week, was of unusual interest to the people of the state at large on account of the large number of Negroes who were present.

The altar decorations consisted of a profusion of narcissus.

There were four Negroes elected alternate delegates at large to the National convention which is to be held at Chicago in June. They were as follows: Dr. J. R. A. Crossen, St. Joseph; W. C. H. Hunter, attorney at Kansas City; Prof. A. R. Chin, Glasgow.

McKelvey Delegation Seated

Exposition Springs, Mo., April 6, 5:35 p. m.—The entire 23rd ward, St. Louis, delegation, headed by Jas. N. McKelvey, was seated at the meeting of the Taxpayers' Protective Ticket 30 to 94 votes. Wheat's name was not on the ballot.

SUNDAY SCHOOL SONG SERVICE BIG SUCCESS

Great Enthusiasm Shown in Singing
"The Battle Hymn of the Republic"—
Prof. Dreer, Supt., Antioch Baptist
St. S. Leads

Five hundred Sunday-school pupils and teachers participated in the mammoth sangfert held at Union Memorial last Monday night. The newly decorated church auditorium of beautiful carvings with highly polished hardware and elegant new piano, made everything look new and just fitting for the occasion.

Sent on the platform with the lead, Miss Arasnia M. Williams, were the superintendents of the various schools. Mr. L. F. Ford, Supt. of Memorial Sunday-school, gave the invocation. Mr. Wilson, Supt. of Central Baptist Sunday-school, gave the benediction. The Rev. Dr. Frank M. Bristol, of the First Baptist, and Dr. Frank M. Bristol, of the First Methodist, were the most eloquent preachers of the day.

This the young colored people are being taught by their white neighbors that they must not expect any of the opportunities or privileges that the flag represents; that its "glorious" privileges are for white people of every nation, and that the colored people are not entitled to any of its protection, but not for black Americans who have not fled black in its defense from Boston Common to San Juan, and at this very moment are defending its honor on Mexican soil.

Rev. F. P. Berry Having Great Success With the Men at Steel Plant

Something unusual is taking place at the Steel Plant, where such a large number of men are employed. The majority of men who work at the plant usually go out there on Sunday mornings where they spend a deal of time discussing whatever comes in their minds. Rev. F. P. Berry, who is also employed, seeing this opportunity, called together a few men and organized a group of them to go to the men readily took to it. Rev. Berry is well known as a gospel singer, and when he starts one of those soul-stirring songs the men all join in and as he puts it, "the spirit like the rushing of a mighty wind comes" and takes hold on the men.

The services have not yet the approval of the owners, who are willing to lend every encouragement to Rev. Berry and his assistants in their efforts.

We have on file hundreds of testimonials from our agents all over the

Our mail order department has increased so rapidly in the past year, until we have been compelled to secure the services of an expert to handle this department.

We desire to place on our payroll this year 125 more agents to handle our preparations. We are prepared to pay a larger commission than any other firm. First—because we manufacture our own preparations.

We own our plant, and have no rent to pay. Third—We buy all of our ingredients wholesale, direct from the factory and laboratories, thus saving the middleman's profit.

NEGRO ELIMINATION

Elimination is the word which, in its application, means the stripping of the Negro of all his franchises of citizenship in government and party.

The American idea of government has always had a tendency towards race government. In earlier days the Indian was governed by segregation, giving him certain territories and reservations. It was a government within a government. The Indian was relieved of taxation and deprived of representation. The laws governing him were different from the laws governing white men, and, hence, we had a long series of Indian wars, in which thousands of lives were lost and millions of dollars expended. These long series of conflicts engendered the bitterest race hate and wasted much energy, life and money.

The British in Canada governed their Indian population just the same as they did their white population. They all went to the same churches, the same schools, and enjoyed the same rights of property and representation as any other subjects of the Dominion. Now, with this race idea still dominant, the Americans want to Indianize the Negro—to give him reservations in cities and outside of cities, to separate him in the schools, in the juries, in the theater, in hotels, in eating houses, in the hospitals, in houses, and even in the jails. The tendency is to perpetuate a war of races and make the Negro the butt for the insults and violence of all the low-down and worse elements of the white population.

You might as well try to damp up the Nile with bullrushes as to try to suppress the aspirations of the Negro for a higher life and better conditions. Two and a half centuries of the most abject bondage could not destroy Negro manhood, and a century of the most humiliating proscription added to it will only give energy to his effort to overcome.

"Truth crushed to earth will rise again,
 For the eternal years of God are hers."

We often wonder why it goes on and when it will stop, and seriously doubt American civilization. Does not all this lynching say that we are a border ruffian nation, with mob law, under the rule of passion and blood?

Christianity is rapidly becoming only another name for American hypocrisy. Long prayers and many words are said with as much grace over the body of a Negro burned to a crisp as at the altars of the holy religion.

Our churches are doing a good work, and the pastors might produce still better results if they would confine their labors more exclusively to the church work.

One Negro killed, one white man killed; one white man wounded and a couple of barns burned were the results of a race war in St. Charles County.

Evidently the Negro was a bad man, and the 500 white men, called a sheriff's posse, seemed equally murderous in their purpose—500 lynchers, with guns and law in their own hands.

UNITE ON ONE MAN

There is but one way for the Negroes to secure the election of a delegate to the Republican Convention to be held in Chicago. Get together and decide on one man. Throw aside personal grievances. A division on the floor of the convention hall next Monday will surely result in defeat. A Negro delegate is what we want, no matter whom.

John Wingate Weeks of Massachusetts, in his day, theories go back to the days of the ancient patriarchs.

And yet a physiological analysis of inherited traits might show that the senator was naturally by his talents a public and statesman, but not by his personality must include the Wingates, the chief of whom, John, an Englishman, emigrated to New England in 1630.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR APRIL 9

AEneas and Dorcas.

LESSON TEXT—Act 9:22-42. (See also GOLDEN TEXT—In all things showing three an example of good works—Titus 2:7.)

Step by step the Gospel can be traced, spreading itself, but "beginning at Jerusalem." Paul's conversion is one of the greatest evidences of Christianity. The two miracles of today's lesson are additional evidence that it is of God:

I. At Lydda (vs. 32-35). Caius, emperor of Rome in A. D. 39, ordered his statue to be erected in Jerusalem that all should worshiped as a god there as elsewhere. The excitement and conflict which arose in opposition to this sacrifice lasted for three years during which time Christian persecutions ceased. Following Saul's visit at Jerusalem, and during this time of quiet, Peter made this tour of visitation. Lydda (modern Lydd) is about twenty-five miles northwest of Jerusalem. Here dwelt certain saints (v. 32) literally "holy ones," converted disciples of Christ, not one of whom, however, who were members of the body of Christ are mentioned (Phil. 1:1). Here also dwelt Aeneas, "a certain man" possibly not a believer, but having great need (v. 26:32; 10:1, 14:8; 9:10), and of years stand (v. 33). Notice Luke, the physician's careful record. Peter must have known such a man, for when he said to Peter "you are evidently looking for him." Peter's pity was not sentimental but practical and his words powerful, for back of them was the Living and Powerful Christ. He knew who could work a cure. The Lord must be believed. Yet those days of illness were not times of meditation and probably prepared the man's heart to respond in faith to Peter's words. Peter does not attract attention to himself, but rather to Jesus. His was but to be the instrument of the cure. The healing was a means to an end, for those who dwelt in Lydda and Sharon (v. 35) heard of the miracle, or saw this healed man, it was to them a demonstration of the power of the risen Christ, and they "turned to the Lord" (v. 35). He is no longer caring Peter with model Christians. Peter's words and actions were a living demonstration, not for profit, of the power of Jesus in his life and testimony.

II. At Joppa (vs. 36:43). Joppa was the only seaport the Jews ever possessed for themselves. It was and is still a rather isolated town, and now marks the beginning of the main railroad leading to Jerusalem, 35 miles distant. No name is recorded of any of its rich or prominent citizens, only that of an humble woman. The record of her life, however, is inspiring (v. 38), and her name is a common one in the list of names of women. Like her master her life was full of "good deeds"; like him she was not ministered unto, but ministered. This is real greatness and it is open to all of us. Her name was Dorcas, or Dorcas. Dorcas means gazelle, which is the Lord's favorite type of beauty. This "constant disciple" was beautiful in life as well, for she was first a believer, then a doer. We believe in order to do, not in order to believe. This woman is an example of love and capable woman mentioned in Philippians 4:3. A picture well worth studying in these days of the "feminist movement." She is a good type to be followed by church women, and by us all in the fact that her reputation rested upon "works" (v. 38), not one who was about to die, nor one who waited for some great opportunity of service. The life of Dorcas reveals one of the causes of the triumph of Christianity in the Roman empire. It was a source of wonder that those early Christians should so love each other, and so minister to each other, as to allow to die in the providence of God. He loved his work and this record incident has served to raise up multitudes of other Dorcas. Her death also reveals that being "full of good works" does not do us any good, and it was not until after her death, and that God evidently had other purposes in view, than to cause our sin or to humble our pride (John 3:2, II Kings 13:14). The friends of Dorcas were full of faith, for as yet there was no cause of apostolic power, and the dead so far as we know, and it was not until about 10 years after the resurrection of Christ. Peter followed the example of his Lord (Luke 8:54), dismissed all spectators and "prayed" (v. 40). The way to revive a dead person, church, school, people, etc., is to pray, "Lord, we do in this town and in this place by thy power." Peter also did as he had seen his Master do to his mother-in-law (Mark 1:30, 31), and gave Dorcas his hand to help her arise.

This gave an opportunity for fruit and seed to be sown. The Lord (v. 1) and the emanations of many new believers (v. 42), so that Peter's heart in Joppa for some time in the house of Simon, a tanner.

His Own

TEXT—Having loved his own which were in the world he loved them unto the end. John 13:1.

With peculiar emphasis this text describes all Christians as "his own." Believers are the peculiar property of the Lord Jesus Christ in at least three ways. They become his by gift from the Father. In the list of them Christ describes them as those "whom thou hast given me." They are also his peculiar property by the price he has paid for them. He has given his precious blood on the cross of Calvary. They belong to him inasmuch as he has given them to him. These are the gifts of his grace and of blessing to the believer. The Father will never take back the gift he has made to the Son, the Son will never give up that which he has purchased at such awful cost, and that which is surrendered, he will never get back. The Lord is ready to have and to hold and to love unto the end: or, as the Revised Version has it, "to the uttermost."

As a child becomes the peculiar care of a home so the believer becomes the peculiar care of the Lord. All other care is to assist him in his property, which sometimes seems as though the Lord dealt with his own in a hard way. This is because the Christian, like the child, does not understand the "why" of many things. Many of the seemingly hard things that the Christian meets are to assist him in his property but to the guardian of the Lord's property from dangers unseen but to his eye. Again, it is the peculiar care of the Lord to guide his own people. He knows what lies along each pathway, which looks attractive to one, but is not so. He sees danger there or else he sees more blessing along some other road. The unknown and untried of the Lord's choosing and the ones who are richest blessed are the ones who are happy in Christ who allows him to be the footstep. Furthermore it is his own peculiar care to provide for his own. Many are the ways he has for providing for them. Sometimes by natural, sometimes by supernatural means. All in the case of Elijah were broken. The ravens were sent to bring him meat, and when they were sent to feed Elijah just where the Lord told him to be. Had he been elsewhere he might have missed what the Lord had for him. So the Christian often misses much that the Lord has in store for him by looking out of the Lord's plan. See to it that you are in God's place for you and he will see to it, though he must work a miracle, that every need of yours will be supplied.

His Own Peculiar Love. The peculiar love of the Lord for his own is manifested in his love and their peculiarities. The Lord graciously warned Simon Peter of his coming time of denial, but Peter boastfully said he would lay down his life before he would leave him even. When therefore Peter so miserably failed it is natural that the Lord's love would grow a bit cool. But the spite of the failure there was no lessening of love, there was no cooling of the affection. It was his love that was in the root that brought Peter to his repentance. Let no Christian doubt the love of the Lord. He thinks that the love of Christ has not been diminished. He loves with an everlasting love that many waters cannot quench. Return unto him and it will be found that having loved his own, he loves them unto the end in spite of many failures. All Christians are kept away from him because he seems to be so backward in learning of him. But he loves in spite of the backwardness of his disciples. Think of Philip after three years of cogitating not being able to discern who he was, but when he was told in answer to his inquiry for the "Lord" that "he that hath seen me hath seen the Father." He knows so well the makeup of the believer that the slowness to understand can surprise him, much less that he loves cold and cold.

His own peculiar property, which is his own peculiar care, is the object of his own peculiar love.

Even the unbeknown of his own is not sufficient to cool the warmth or less the depth of his love.

After the doubt one, was never loved any more truly or more deeply than in the midst of his refusal to believe in the resurrection until he had thrust his hand into the wound prints.

There is nothing that can bring us an end the love of the Lord for his own, for having loved his own he loves them unto the end; or, as the Revised Version puts it, "He loves them to the uttermost."

LIONS DRAW BIG CROWDS TO BOOKER WASHINGTON

Primer" Delmar and his troupe of performing lions are giving a genuine thrill of excitement to the Booker Washington hill this week. One of the beasts appears not to be in the best humor and Mr. Delmar is kept constantly on the watch. He does many daring things, one being the placing of his face in a lion's mouth. The lions do several stunts and keep the audience in a fit of excitement and expectancy.

Minstrel Morris, the comedy juggler, is pleasing with his same old stunts and same old jokes.

Hattie Garland, the delightfully popular singing singer, is impressive. She maintains her strong voice, but sings with more ease. Her work is exceedingly appreciated by the big audience.

Harrington and Mills close the show with a good singing and dancing act. Especially noteworthy is the artistic dancing of Miss Mills. Harrington's eccentric work is good, but his suggestive talk should be eliminated. The net makes a big hit.
